Section I Chairman's Statement

Dear shareholders,

I am very grateful for your long-term support and care to Fuyao Glass. Entrusted by the Board of Directors, I am pleased to present the 2016 annual report for your review.

In 2016, the global economy recovered from its profound adjustment, but the situation was still severe. As the first year of "the 13th Five-Year Plan", 2016 saw transformation in China's economy and unexpected substantial growth in the automobile industry. 2016 marked the critical year when Fuyao, which served a "supporting role" in the automobile industry, gained satisfactory achievements, affirmed its future development and work focus, as well as entered the global market to enhance its brand reputation and influence. The automotive glass plant in the US was completed for operation, and hence float glass was successfully produced. North American and Russian subsidiaries were also in the track of positive development, while European subsidiaries were in the course of preparation in full swing as well.

In 2016, the Company made great efforts to promote the project "Industrial Internet at Fuyao" by integrating the informatization and industrialization and continual improvement, with an aim to build FPS (Fuyao production system) and continue to create value for customers. Abundant accomplishments were successfully achieved with both production & sales volumes and profits hitting a record high. During the Reporting Period, the Company achieved a revenue of RMB16,621,336,000, representing a year-on-year growth of 22.45%, a profit before income tax of RMB3,918,847,000, representing a year-on-year growth of 28.82%, and a profit for the year attributable to the equity holders of the Company of RMB3,143,449,000, representing a year-on-year growth of 20.68%.

As we have entered a new year, we shall continue moving forward instead of being complacent with what we have achieved. With new hopes coming in the new year, I believe that there will also be new challenges. I will prepare for the new challenges with a positive attitude to optimize interests for the shareholders, to increase the happiness index of all employees in all aspects, to improve customer satisfaction in order to facilitate the Company to achieve more brilliant success in 2017.

In 2017, the Company will promote intelligent manufacturing and lean management, reduce operating costs and increase operating efficiency; allocate more resources to staff training, and implement enterprise transformation and upgrading through enhancing the quality of staff; strengthen the management on intellectual property, brand and compliance, with an aim to enhance the comprehensive competitiveness of the Company.

*Chairman: Cho Tak Wong

Section III Corporate Profile and Principal Financial Indicators

(II) Note to discrepancies between domestic and overseas accounting standards

In addition to prepare the financial statements for H shares in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards, the Company, as an A-shares company listed on the SSE, is also required to prepare financial statements in accordance with the China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises. There are discrepancies between the financial statements prepared by the Company in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and those prepared by the Company in accordance with the China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises: Yung Tak Investment Limited, a subsidiary of the Group, made provision for impairment in accordance with the discrepancies between recoverable amounts and carrying amounts of buildings and land use rights in the previous year. The provision for long-term asset impairment was subject to “Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 8 – Assets Impairment” issued by the Ministry of Finance on February 15, 2006. Upon recognition of the loss on asset impairment of the Group, it shall not be reversed during the subsequent accounting periods. Under the International Financial Reporting Standards, various estimations for the recognition of the recoverable amount of assets applied by the Group have varied since the latest recognition of loss on impairment, and the loss on asset impairment, excluding goodwill, recognised in the previous period should be reversed. Such discrepancies will have an impact on the provision for (and loss on) asset impairment of the Group, operating results (depreciation/amortization) of buildings and land use rights within useful lives, thus resulting in the adjustment matters above.

Section IV Summary of the Business of the Company

I. DETAILS OF THE COMPANY'S PRINCIPAL BUSINESS, BUSINESS MODEL AND INDUSTRY SITUATION DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

(I) Principal business and business model

The principal business of the Company is the provision of total solution of safety glass for various transportation vehicles, including the provision of design, manufacture, sales and service for automotive grade float glass and automotive glass and locomotive glass. The business model of the Company is globalized research and development, design, manufacture, distribution and after-sales service. The Company adheres to its brand development strategies of keeping technology leadership and fast responding to the market, so as to work with its customers on product design, manufacturing and service providing. The Company creates values for its customers through the concentration on improving industrial ecological chain and reacting to the ever-changing demand of customers systematically, professionally and rapidly.

The following table sets forth details of revenue by products for the specified period:

Unit: '000 Currency: RMB

Business	2016		2015		2014
	Revenue	Percentage (%)	Revenue	Percentage (%)	Revenue	Percentage (%)
Automotive glass	16,145,326	97.14	13,137,757	96.79	12,439,377	96.22
Float glass	2,729,026	16.42	2,485,240	18.31	2,129,748	16.47

Total	16,621,336	100.00	13,573,495	100.00	12,928,182	100.00

(II) Industry Overview

The automobile production volume in China increased from 18,264,700 units in 2010 to 28,118,800 units in 2016, with a compound annual growth rate of 7.46% and a year-on-year growth of 14.46%. It has ranked first in the world for eight consecutive years. The Chinese automobile industry has transformed into a stage of quality-dominated development from that of speed-dominated development.

The average growth speed of the global automobile industry maintained stable at approximately 3.5% to 4.5%, as is evident from the average growth speed of automobile in the international market for years. However, the growth speed of the automobile industry in developing countries is higher than that in developed countries and their proportion in the global automobile industry is constantly increasing with an expanding impact.

According to the data of OICA as of 2014, the global automobile ownership was 1.236 billion units. Economic sentiments, climate changes and road conditions are the major factors affecting the total amount of aftermarket automotive glass. The stable growth in automobile ownership and frequent extreme weathers brought a rapid growth in the demand of aftermarket automotive glass.

In the medium and long term, the popularity of automobiles in China will still be relatively low. According to the data as of 2015, the automotive ownership had reached approximately 12 units, approximately 18 units and over 80 units for every one hundred people in China, in the world and the US, respectively. Along with the development of Chinese economy, the enhancement of urbanization level, the growth of residents' income, the increase in consumption ability and the improvement of road infrastructure, it will constantly bring driving forces to the growth of the Chinese automobile market. There is still much room for development in the Chinese automobile industry and the industry of provision of accessories for automobiles.

Section IV Summary of the Business of the Company

The promotion of new-energy, intelligent and energy-saving automobiles facilitates economic transformation and upgrading; along with the development of application technology, the automotive glass has developed towards environmental protection, energy conservation, intelligence and integration with constantly increasing additional value. The leading position of Fuyao in the industry in terms of technology has brought structural opportunities to the sale of automotive glass of the Company.

Therefore, as a supporting industry of the automobile industry, there is still room for stable development for the industry in the medium and long run.

Note: The sources of the information above include the information from Organization Internationale des Constructeurs d'Automobiles (OICA), the China Association of Automobile Manufacturers and the International Organization of Motor Vehicle Manufacturers.

II. DETAILS OF SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES OF THE PRINCIPAL ASSETS OF THE COMPANY DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

There were no substantial changes of the principal assets of the Company during the Reporting Period.

Including: overseas assets of RMB13.038 billion, accounting for 43.64% of the total assets.

III. ANALYSIS ON THE CORE COMPETITIVENESS DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

During the Reporting Period, the Company continued to strengthen its core competitiveness:

1. Fuyao, a company with strong sense of social responsibility and mission, has gained trust from global automobile manufacturers, users, suppliers and investors by fulfilling its supporting role in the world's automobile industry of contributing transparent and delicate glass to the world. Brand is the core competitiveness of Fuyao.
2. Fuyao has trained a team with devotion, passion, unity and aggressiveness which has competitive advantages in operation, management, technology, quality, technique, design and IT in the glass industry.
3. The standardized, transparent and international financial system and the ERP-based process optimization system of Fuyao lay a solid foundation for the digitalization and intelligentization of "Industry 4.0".
4. Fuyao has built a relatively comprehensive industrial ecology, such as sand mineral resources, quality float technology, research and development of process and equipment, global layout of R&D centers and supply chain network; unique staff training and related mechanism, all of which are the systematic industrial advantages like a "city moat".
5. Development strategy in a professional, devoted and concentrated manner enables the Company to react promptly to market changes and provide Total Solution of automotive glass for customers.

II. DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS ON THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE COMPANY

(I) Industry landscape and development trend

The automobile production volume in China increased from 18,264,700 units in 2010 to 28,118,800 units in 2016, with a compound annual growth rate of 7.46% and a year-on-year growth of 14.46%. It has ranked first in the world for eight consecutive years. The Chinese automobile industry has transformed into a stage of quality-dominated development from that of speed-dominated development.

The average growth speed of the global automobile industry maintained stable at approximately 3.5% to 4.5%, as is evident from the average growth speed of automobile in the international market for years. However, the growth speed of the automobile industry in developing countries is higher than that in developed countries and their proportion in the global automobile industry is constantly increasing with an expanding impact.

According to the data of OICA as of 2014, the global automobile ownership was 1.236 billion units. Economic sentiments, climate changes and road conditions are the major factors affecting the total amount of aftermarket automotive glass. The stable growth in automobile ownership and frequent extreme weathers brought a rapid growth in the demand of aftermarket automotive glass.

In the medium and long term, the popularity of automobiles in China will still be relatively low. According to the data as of 2015, the automotive ownership had reached approximately 12 units, approximately 18 units and over 80 units for every one hundred people in China, in the world and the US, respectively. Along with the development of Chinese economy, the enhancement of urbanization level, the growth of residents' income, the increase in consumption ability and the improvement of road infrastructure, it will constantly bring driving forces to the growth of the Chinese automobile market. There is still much room for development in the Chinese automobile industry and the industry of provision of accessories for automobiles.

The promotion of new-energy, intelligent and energy-saving automobiles facilitates economic transformation and upgrading; along with the development of application technology, the automotive glass has developed towards environmental protection, energy conservation, intelligence and integration with constantly increasing additional value. The leading position of Fuyao in the industry in terms of technology has brought structural opportunities to the sale of automotive glass of the Company.

Therefore, as a supporting industry of the automobile industry, there is still room for stable development for the industry in the medium and long run.

(II) Development strategies of the Company

Development strategies of the Company:

Leveraging the culture and talents of techniques and innovation, the Company has systemically established a sustainable competitive advantage and profitability for “Fuyao” to become a transparent and reliable company for customers, shareholders, employees, suppliers, government, distributors and the society in the long run.

The plan of the Company is:

- 1) to extend the boundary of “a piece of glass”, strengthen the study in the trend of glass integration and provide more comprehensive product solutions and services to automobile factories and ARG users.
- 2) to operate globally. The Company is conducting transformation and upgrade in respect of organization structure, culture, investment and talents to improve the ability to provide services and create values for customers worldwide.
- 3) to promote big data and intelligent manufacturing, enlarge the involvement of informatization and automatization, advance the lean manufacturing in depth, establish Fuyao integrated collaboration platform as IT-driven business process, and build FPS (Fuyao production system) with high quality and low cost.
- 4) to capture the brand establishment, quality assurance and match high-quality products with its brand to make “Fuyao” an international brand representing the standard of the industry and establish a worldwide common research and development platform while achieving the short-term operation goals and long-term strategic development.
- 5) to further comprehensively promote management system with intensive capital and budget to ensure the maximization of capital efficiency.
- 6) to be people-oriented, strengthen the training and growth of all staff, enhance the cohesion of Fuyao staff and improve staff growth and happiness index to make Fuyao a great company.

Opportunities of the Company:

- 1) The development of intelligent and environment-friendly automobiles provides new development opportunities for Fuyao. With the transformation from product operation to brand operation featured by integrated Total Solution, the Company’s value has been on the rise continuously.
- 2) The PRC economic structure will become more reasonable, differences between regions will be reduced, poverty gap will be narrowed down, buying power will be increased and the economy will be developed healthily and stably, which provide new opportunities for the development of the Company.
- 3) The reasonable capital structure, sufficient cash flow, stable finance and exceptional operating ability of the Company have laid an optimal foundation for leap development of the Company.
- 4) Benefiting from the solid foundation of the Company’s informatization, the Company can quickly adapt to changes in external environment in the informatization era.
- 5) The successful operation of the US Fuyao automotive glass plant and the additional investment in such plant can provide faster and more valuable services to North American customers and the largest market in the world. The Russian branch can better serve both local and European markets. The German plant has started its construction, and hence the globalization of Fuyao system has been taking shape.

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

Challenges of the Company:

- 1) The transformation and upgrade of the global economy and the increase in uncertainties will bring challenges to the international development of the Company.
- 2) Under the “new normal”, the adjustment to the PRC’s economic structure and the slowdown in the growth speed will bring challenges to the domestic development of the Company.
- 3) In the informatization era, customers have growing requirements for the response speed, and propose new requirements for the improvement of collaborative ability of the Company.
- 4) New requirements for the intelligentization of glass are raised by the intelligentization of automobiles; new requirements for the automobile window solutions are raised by the improvement of technology.
- 5) The globalized operation and development of the Company brings challenges to the Company on, among others things, adapting to cultural differences, laws and matching of human resources in the country it operates.

(III) Operating plan

For the year of 2017, the domestic and overseas economic environment will become more complex and volatile. Coupled with the slowdown in growth of automobile sales, Fuyao will face greater challenges. As such, the Company will accelerate the design and development of new products and constantly increase its market share with a persistent orientation towards the demand of internal and external customers. Based on the scientific decision-making and transparency of big data management and the pragmatic technological foundation of human and machine, the full-value chain operations management will be realized. The production volume, sales volume and other principal operating indicators of automotive glass are expected to maintain steady growth for the year of 2017.

Major tasks of the Company to be carried out in 2017:

In 2017, the Company will carry out 10 tasks focusing on “one center” and “two goals”:

- One center: all for continuously creating values for customers.
- Two goals: externally, enhancing customer satisfaction in all aspects; internally, continuously making efforts in management innovation and technical innovation to stimulate the creativity of all Fuyao staff and enhance their happiness index.
 1. Implement quality management by all staff throughout the whole process, set zero tolerance for quality incidents and hidden troubles and equally level up our human resources, machines, materials, regulatory compliance, environmental protection and testing to create benefits with quality;
 2. Continue to deepen the business reform, create a new ecological business model for the operation of the Company that is driven by customers, and set up the market department, with an aim to enable a professional and international marketing model and team to take shape; strengthen strategic communication and technical exchanges with customers to further enhance Fuyao’s capability of synchronous design and market value transformation;
 3. Further promote the Group’s international strategy and capture for more market share to make the US and Russian subsidiaries that have already commenced operation better serve their respective target customers;

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

4. Adopt a new model of lean exploration in cost reduction and efficiency improvement to further enhance the full value chain of customers and suppliers, and make customized investment in strategic suppliers and VAVE (Value Analysis and Value Engineering);
5. Build a global supply chain ecosystem and increase the investment in and renovation of float glass, thus providing more effective support for the procurement and supply of bulk materials and safeguarding the market competitiveness;
6. Deepen the research and development of new technologies, techniques and equipment and explore and develop a management mechanism that is more market-oriented, more pragmatic, closer to customers and better enhance Fuyao's core competitiveness, thus laying the foundation for higher value-added products;
7. Promote intelligent manufacturing and lean management to achieve lower operating costs, higher efficiency and better operation and product quality; and enter into a new flexible manufacturing model by continuously reviewing, upgrading, planning and connecting projects that have already been commenced;
8. Further implement the management reform, streamline administration and delegate more power to lower levels, as well as clarify rights and obligations for a more effective orientation, assessment and incentive mechanism, thus creating conditions for all Fuyao staff to contribute knowledge values and intelligences;
9. Invest more in the Lean Management Institute for staff training and improvement to enable all staff to take part in transformation and upgrading, which results in a positive interaction between the growth of staff and the development of the Company;
10. More consciously reinforce the development of intellectual property rights, standards, brands, culture, compliance to better join in international competitions, thus laying a good foundation for sustainable development.

In order to achieve the operating plan and work targets for the year of 2017, the Company expects the funding demand throughout 2017 will be RMB22.123 billion, of which the operating expenditure, capital expenditure and the expenditure of payment of cash dividends will be RMB16.050 billion, RMB4.192 billion and RMB1.881 billion, respectively. Such plan will be achieved through collection of sales payment, acceleration of inventory turnovers and management of receivables, utilization of balance funds and debt financing such as borrowings from financial institutions or issuance of debentures. In 2017, for the purpose of enhancing the security and effectiveness of capital management, the Company will continuously enhance the comprehensive budget management, strictly control the exchange risks and optimize the capital structure.

The abovementioned plan is an operating plan based on the current economic conditions, market conditions and the position of the Company. The operating plan therefore does not constitute a performance guarantee or actual guarantee by the Company to the investors. Investors shall maintain a sufficient awareness of the risks and gain an understanding of the differences between an operating plan and a performance guarantee.

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

(IV) Potential risks

1. Risks on economic, political and social conditions, and government policies

Most assets of the Company are located in the PRC and approximately 65% of the income is from the business in the PRC. Therefore, the operating results, financial status and prospects of the Company are influenced by the changes in economy, politics, policies and laws. As the Chinese economy is in the stage of transformation and upgrade, the business of the Company in the PRC might also be affected. Hence, the Company will enhance the innovation on technology while strengthening the aftersales maintenance market, and consolidate and ensure stable and healthy development of the PRC market while taking advantage of globalized operation.

2. Risks of the industry development

The global automobile industry is in the process of transformation and upgrade. Competition in the automobile industry is stretching from a manufacturing field to a service field where intelligence, networking and digitalization will be the mainstream of the development of the automobile industry. As the scale of individual enterprises in the PRC automobile industry remains small, consolidation will be inevitable. If the Company fails to promptly react to the change in technologies, customers' demands might not be satisfied. If the demand of automobiles fluctuates, the demand of products of the Company would also fluctuate, which might result in an adverse impact on the financial status and operating results of the Company. The Company, therefore, will enrich product lines, optimize product structures, increase the added value of products, including encapsulated products, HUD glass, acoustic glass, hydrophobic glass, SPD light transmittance glass, coated heat-cut glass and UV-cut glass, to provide more comprehensive product solutions and services to customers worldwide.

3. Risks of the market competition

Intensified market competition may result in a decrease in the prices or demand of part of the Company's products. If the competitors of the Company successfully reduced their costs of products or launched new glass products or materials which could substitute glass, the sale and profit margin of the Company may be adversely affected. In this regard, the Company applied the strategy of differentiation to strengthen the strategic and cooperative relationship with customers, further satisfy market needs at home and abroad, and constantly improve the value and competitiveness of "Fuyao" brand.

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

4. Risks of cost fluctuation

The costs of automotive glass of the Company mainly comprise raw materials of float glass, PVB raw materials, labor, electricity and manufacturing costs, while the costs of float glass mainly include costs of fuels such as sodium carbonate and natural gas, labor, electricity and manufacturing fees. Influenced by the fluctuation of the prices of international bulk commodities, changes in supply and demand in the natural gas market, changes in production capacity in the sodium carbonate industry and needs for sodium carbonate due to the prospect of the glass and the aluminum oxide industry, the commencement of the pricing mechanism of natural gas and the linkage reform mechanism of crude oil, the commencement of coal power linkage pricing reform mechanism, the pressures of inflation arising from the Quantitative Easing happening to countries by turn all over the world, continuous rising of labor cost, the Company is exposed to the risk of cost fluctuation. Given the above, the Company will:

- (1) integrate key material suppliers to develop cooperative partnership relationship and build a sound mechanism in respect of the rating and incentive of suppliers, and appraise outstanding suppliers; build an iron triangle management mechanism on areas such as procurement, technique and quality by focusing on suppliers of key materials and import of materials.
- (2) enhance the research on the price trend of raw materials and make purchases in a timely manner; expand supply channel to ensure a stable and effective supply.
- (3) improve the utilization rate of materials, increase automation, optimize staff allocation, enhance efficiency, conserve energy and reduce consumption, strictly control costs throughout the process, integrate logistics, optimize packaging plans, increase transportation capacity of lorries and containers, reduce costs of packaging and logistics, enhance innovation in research and development and application of research accomplishments, increase productivity, improve management level and achieve overall efficiency.
- (4) strengthen customer loyalty and inspire their confidence in placing orders at the same time through building plants in the Europe and the US and conducting production and sale in those regions, and leverage certain of its strengths in the prices of materials, natural gas and electricity to avoid risks arising from cost fluctuations.
- (5) improve knowledge productivity and create value for the Company by devoting efforts to energy conservation in manufacturing and management, as well as product intelligence.

5. Risks of fluctuations in exchange rates

Reforms have been made to the mechanism of the country's RMB exchange rate with regard to the principles of taking initiatives in the reforms of, pursuing gradual changes in and maintaining control over RMB exchange rates by turning the said mechanism into a managed floating rate system based on market supply and demand with reference of the basket of currencies. Although the underlying cause of imbalances in international trade lies in the issues behind the economic structure of certain countries, fluctuations in exchange rates will take place alongside the fluctuations in the global economy, turbulence in certain countries, growing tension in certain key areas, and the tightening and easing of monetary policies by different countries. Given that the export-oriented business has accounted for over one third and its scale expands per annum, the occurrence of significant fluctuations in exchange rates will affect the results of the Company. In this regard, (1) the finance department of the headquarters of the Group will strengthen the supervision on the scale of foreign currency transactions as well as foreign currency assets and liabilities of the Group, and manage the potential fluctuations in exchange rates possibly by optimizing the settlement currency of export trades and utilizing exchange rate financial instruments and other proactive preventive measures; (2) the Company will strengthen customer loyalty and inspire their confidence in placing orders through building plants in the Europe and the US and conducting production and sale in those regions while avoiding risks arising from the fluctuations in exchange rates and keeping the risks under control.

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

6. Risks that the Company might not be able to respond quickly enough to rapid technological change and evolving standards in the automotive glass industry or in industries of the customers of the Company

The Company focuses on developing proprietary technologies and new automotive glass products. Long time periods may be required for the new product development process, potentially leading to mounting expenses. Substantial investment of capital and resources may be necessary before new products contribute to sales. Investment in the development of new products by the Company may not generate sufficient earnings in the event that competitors release new products to the market more rapidly than the Company does or if alternative technologies and products are preferred by the market. If the Company is unable to predict or respond in a timely manner to changes in technologies or does not succeed in developing new products suited to customer needs, the Company's business activities, business performance and financial condition may be adversely affected. In order to maintain the competitive edge, the Company will enlarge its investment in research and development, improve its independence and innovation capabilities, strengthen the management of research and development projects and establish the market-oriented research and development mechanism. The Company will also directly respond to the demand of the main manufacturers through the product center to establish a strategic cooperative relationship with the customers.

III. RESULTS

Please see "Consolidated Income Statement" of "Section XII Financial Report" for details of the annual results of the Company as of the year ended December 31, 2016. Please see "Section XIII Business Performance Highlights for the Previous Five Years" for the summary of the results of the Company for the last five financial years.

IV. DIVIDEND AND REDUCTION AND EXEMPTION OF DIVIDEND TAX

The profit distribution plan for the year of 2016 proposed by the Company is as follows: cash dividends of RMB7.5 per 10 shares (tax inclusive) are distributed based on total share capital of 2,508,617,532 shares of the Company as of December 31, 2016 for holders of A shares and holders of H shares whose names appear on the register of members on the record date of the declaration of cash dividend for the year of 2016 and dividend of RMB1,881,463,149 in total is distributed. The undistributed profit balance of the Company will be settled and carried forward to the following year. The Company will not carry out bonus sharing and conversion of capital reserve into share capital for the year of 2016. The cash dividend distributed by the Company is denominated and declared in RMB and payable in RMB to holders of A shares, and in HKD to holders of H shares.

After the profit distribution plan for the year 2016 of the Company is approved by the annual general meeting, the cash dividend will be paid out within two months from the closing of the annual general meeting. The Company will announce the details regarding the distribution date of and other matters on final dividend in due course.

For the details of the formulation, implementation and adjustment to the policy of cash dividend and the plan or proposal for profit distribution of the Company for the last three years (including the Reporting Period), please see "1. Profit Distribution Plan for Ordinary Shares or Plan to Convert Surplus Reserves into Share Capital" of "Section VII Significant Events".

Section V Report of the Board of Directors

Holders of A shares

In accordance with the Notice of Ministry of Finance, State Administration of Taxation and CSRC on Implementing Differentiated Individual Income Tax Policy for Stock Dividends of Listed Companies (Cai Shui [2015] No. 101) (《財政部、國家稅務總局、中國證監會關於實施上市公司股息紅利差別化個人所得稅政策有關問題的通知》(財稅[2015]101號)), for shares of listed companies obtained by individuals from public offerings or the market, where the holding period exceeds one year, the dividends shall be temporarily exempted from individual income tax; where the holding period is less than one month (inclusive), the full amount of dividends shall be counted as taxable income and where the holding period is more than one month and less than one year (inclusive), 50% of the dividends shall be counted as taxable income on a provisional basis. The individual income tax rate of 20% shall be applicable for all incomes mentioned above. For dividends distributed by listed companies, where the period of individual shareholding is within one year (inclusive), the listed companies shall not withhold the individual income tax temporarily. Unit: '000 Currency: RMB (other than percentage)

Items	Closing balance	The percentage of closing balance to the total assets (%)	Opening balance	The percentage of opening balance to the total assets (%)	Change in the closing balance as compared with the opening balance (%)	Explanations
Investments in an associate	61,472	0.21	–	–	100.00	The increase of investments in an associate was due to the fact that the Group still held 25% equity interests in Fuyao Group Shuangliao Co., Ltd. (福耀集團雙遼有限公司) (now renamed as Jinken Glass Industry Shuangliao Co., Ltd.) (金壘玻璃工業雙遼有限公司), hereinafter referred to as "Fuyao Shuangliao") upon the completion of transferring 75% of its equity interests during the Reporting Period, and hence Fuyao Shuangliao would be accounted for as an associate instead of a subsidiary.
Trade and other receivables	4,952,027	16.57	3,783,579	15.23	30.88	The increase in trade and other receivables was mainly due to a significant growth of revenue for the fourth quarter of the Reporting Period as compared with the corresponding period of last year, which resulted in an increase in the trade receivables balance.
Derivative financial instruments – current assets	1,951	0.01	–	–	100.00	The increase in derivative financial instruments was due to fair value gains of unsettled foreign exchange forward contracts.
Assets of disposal groups classified as held-for-sale	–	–	320,468	1.29	-100.00	The decrease in assets of disposal groups classified as held-for-sale was due to completion of transferring 75% equity interests in Fuyao Shuangliao held by the Company during the Reporting Period.

Other reserves	1,751,558	5.86	1,098,091	4.42	59.51	The increase in other reserves was due to the increase in difference on conversion of foreign financial statements resulting from appreciation of the U.S. Dollar and the Russian Ruble.
Borrowings – non-current liabilities	1,573,531	5.27	848,000	3.41	85.56	The increase in borrowings was mainly due to the issuance of 3-year term corporate bonds of RMB800 million with an annual interest rate of 3% during the Reporting Period.
Current income tax liabilities	434,780	1.46	262,137	1.06	65.86	The increase in current income tax liabilities was mainly due to an increase in total profits for the Reporting Period, which resulted in higher income tax liabilities.
Borrowings – current liabilities	5,671,642	18.98	3,871,051	15.58	46.51	The increase in borrowings was mainly due to an increase in working capital requirements.
Derivatives financial instruments – current liabilities	–	–	925	0.00	-100.00	The decrease in derivatives financial instruments was due to the settlement of some future foreign exchange settlement contracts and the unrealized gains resulting from revaluation of the unsettled future foreign exchange settlement contracts.
Liabilities of disposal groups classified as held-for-sale	–	–	9,552	0.04	-100.00	The decrease in liabilities of disposal groups classified as held-for-sale was due to completion of transferring 75% equity interests in Fuyao Group Shuangliao Co., Ltd. (renamed as Jinken Glass Industry Shuangliao Co., Ltd.) (金壘玻璃工業雙遼有限公司) held by the Company during the Reporting Period.

Section VI Management Discussion and Analysis

(III) Analysis on industry operating information

The automobile production volume in China increased from 18,264,700 units in 2010 to 28,118,800 units in 2016, with a compound annual growth rate of 7.46% and year-on-year growth of 14.46%. It has ranked first in the world for the last eight years. The Chinese automobile industry has transformed into a stage of quality-driven development from that of speed-driven development.

The average growth speed of the global automobile industry maintained stable at approximately 3.5% to 4.5%, as is evident from the average growth speed of automobile industry in the world for years. However, the growth speed of the automobile industry in developing countries is higher than that in developed countries and their proportion in the global automobile industry is constantly increasing with an expanding impact.

According to OICA, the global automobile ownership is 1.236 billion units as of 2014. Economic sentiments, climate changes and road conditions are the major factors affecting the total amount of aftermarket automotive glass. The stable growth in car ownership and frequent extreme weathers brought a rapid growth in the demand of aftermarket automotive glass.

In the medium and long term, the popularity of Chinese automobiles will still be relatively low. According to the data as of 2015, the automotive ownership has reached approximately 12 units, approximately 18 units and over 80 units for every one hundred Chinese, global individuals and Americans, respectively. Along with the development of the Chinese economy, the enhancement of urbanization level, the growth in residents' income, the increase in consumption ability and the improvement of road infrastructure will continue to infuse driving force in growing the Chinese automobile market. There is still much room for development for the Chinese automobile industry and its supporting industries.

The promotion of new-energy, intelligent and energy-saving automobiles drives economic transformation and upgrading; along with the development of technical application, the automotive glass has developed towards environmental protection, energy conservation, intelligence and integration with constantly increasing additional value. The leading position of Fuyao in the industry in terms of technology has brought structural opportunities to the automotive glass of the Company in the market.

Therefore, as a supporting industry of the automobile industry, there is still room for stable development for the industry in the medium and long run.

II. PERFORMANCE OF UNDERTAKINGS

(I) Undertakings of the de facto controller of the Company, shareholders, related parties, Acquiror and the Company during or subsisting to the Reporting Period

Nature of the undertaking	Type of the undertaking	Undertaking party	Details of the undertaking	Time and term of the undertaking	Whether there is a term for the undertaking	Whether performed timely and strictly
Other undertakings	Dividend distribution	Fuyao Glass Industry Group Co., Ltd.	The dividend distribution plan for the shareholders for the upcoming three years (2015-2017) is as follows: 1. Form of profit distribution: provided that the relevant stipulations and conditions under the relevant laws, regulations, normative documents, the Articles of Association and this plan are complied with and that the continuity and stability of the profit distribution plan is ensured, the Company may distribute dividends by way of cash, shares, the combination of cash and shares or any other distribution methods as permitted under relevant laws and regulations. The profit distribution of the Company shall neither exceed the accumulated distributable profit nor impair the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Among the profit distribution methods, the Company shall preferentially distribute in the form of cash over shares. Where the Company fulfills the conditions for dividend distribution in the form of cash, the Company shall distribute dividends by way of cash. Where the Company distributes profit in the form of shares, the decision shall be made based on true and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution of net assets per share. 2. Interval of profit distribution: if the Company has generated profit and its accumulated undistributed profit is a positive figure in the year, the Company shall distribute profit at least once a year. The Company may make interim profit distribution by way of cash. In the upcoming three years, the Board of Directors of the Company may propose to the Company an interim dividend distribution in accordance with the profit scale, cash flow, development stage and demand for funds of the Company in the year. 3. Specific conditions for and the minimum proportion of dividend distribution by way of cash: in the event that the Company has no material investment plans or substantial capital expenditure (excluding investment projects for fundraising) and the Company has generated profit and its accumulated undistributed profit is a positive figure in the year, the Company shall distribute dividend in the form of cash and the profit distributed by this way for the year shall not be less than 20% of the distributable profit realized in the year, provided, however, that the sustainable operations and long-term development of the Company are ensured. The Board of Directors shall devise a proposal on the specific proportion of dividend distribution for each year in accordance with the profit of the Company for the year and plans for the utilization of future funds. 4. Specific conditions for dividend distribution by way of shares: provided that good conditions for operations and growth of the Company are ensured and that the Board of Directors considers there is a mismatch between the scale of the Company's share capital and, inter alia, the earnings per share, share price and net assets per share, and under the premise that the Company fulfills the requirements above for cash dividend distribution, the Company may distribute profit by way of shares. In determining the specific amount of profit distribution in the form of shares, the Company shall fully take into account whether the total share capital after the distribution of share dividends is in line with, inter alia, the current operational scale, pace of profit growth and dilution of net assets per share of the Company and consider its impact on future debt financing costs, in a bid to ensure that the profit distribution plan is in line with the overall and long term interests of the shareholders as a whole. 5. Differentiated cash dividend policy: the Board of Directors shall distinguish the following circumstances having taken into account its industry features, development stages, business model and profitability as well as whether it has any substantial capital expenditure arrangements, and propose differentiated cash dividend policies in accordance with the procedures set out in the Articles of Association: (1) Where the Company is in a developed stage with no substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 80% of the total profit distribution during the profit distribution; (2) Where the Company is in a developed stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 40% of the total profit distribution during the profit distribution; (3) Where the Company is in a developing stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangements, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 20% of the total profit distribution during the profit distribution; If it is difficult to determine the Company's stage of development while it has significant capital expenditure arrangements, the profit distribution may be dealt with pursuant to the rules applied in the previous distribution. 6. In the event that the Company has realized profit in the previous financial year but the Board of Directors of the Company did not propose any cash dividend distribution plan at the end of the previous financial year, the Company shall seek advice from the independent directors and shall disclose in the periodic reports the reasons for not proposing the cash dividend plan, the use of undistributed funds accumulated in the Company, and the independent directors shall present independent opinions and disclose the same to the public. 7. The formulation and execution of the profit distribution plan: the Board of Directors shall propose a profit distribution plan and submit the same to the general meeting for consideration at the end of each financial year. The Company accepts the advice and supervision of all shareholders, independent directors and supervisors on the Company's profit distribution plan. After the decision for the profit distribution plan has been reached at the general meeting of the Company, the Board of Directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months of the convening of the general meeting.	Date of announcement of the undertaking: March 12, 2015, term of performance of the undertaking: January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2017	Yes	Yes

Section VII Significant Events

According to the relevant disclosures headed “Substantial Shareholders” in the prospectus in relation to the H shares offering dated March 19, 2015, Ms. Chan Fung Ying and Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. (“Yaohua”) undertook that subject to any disposal prohibitions required by PRC securities laws, rules and regulations, Yaohua and Ms. Chan shall together donate to the Company, within 15 business days following the lock-up expiry date (the date which is 12 months from the listing of the H shares of the Company, i.e. March 31, 2016, “Lock-up Expiry Date”), any notional profit gained by Yaohua and Ms. Chan in respect of the additional acquisition of 10,047,792 A Shares (the “Subject Shares”) at an average price of RMB14.916 per A Share on March 2, 2015. The specific formula is as follows: total amount to be donated to the Company = (the average closing price of the A shares of the Company as traded on the SSE for the 5 trading days immediately preceding the Lock-up Expiry Date – RMB14.916) x 10,047,792 shares. If the average closing price of the A shares of the Company as traded on the SSE for the 5 trading days immediately preceding the Lock-up Expiry Date is lower than RMB14.916 per share, the total amount to be donated by Yaohua and Ms. Chan to the Company will be zero. The notional gain to be donated does not necessarily require the disposal of the Subject Shares by Yaohua and Ms. Chan. As the average closing price of the A shares of the Company as traded on the SSE for the 5 trading days immediately preceding the Lock-up Expiry Date was RMB14.724 per share, lower than RMB14.916 per share, Yaohua and Ms. Chan need not donate any notional gain in respect of the Subject Shares.

Section VII Significant Events

V. THE CREDIT STATUS OF THE COMPANY, ITS CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS AND DE FACTO CONTROLLER DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

During the Reporting Period, there has been no refusal to implement effective judgments of a court or failure to meet debt repayment schedules in a relatively large amount by the Company or de facto controller of the Company.

VI. SUBSTANTIAL CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

(I) Non-exempt continuing connected transactions (disclosed in accordance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules)

1. On August 22, 2015, the Company entered into a supply of goods framework agreement with Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. (which has changed its name to Fujian Triplex Auto Decoration Co., Ltd., same as below) for the purchase of some production facilities and raw and auxiliary production materials, for a term from September 1, 2015 to December 31, 2016. With the continuous expansion of its production scale in 2016, the Company expected that the quantity and value of equipment purchased from Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. would significantly increase. Therefore, on October 29, 2016, the Board decided to increase its annual caps under the supply of goods framework agreement for the year ended December 31, 2016 from RMB90,000,000 to RMB120,000,000.

Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. are both controlled by Mr. Tso Fai, a non-executive director of the Company, and are associates of Mr. Tso Fai. In accordance with the rules under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. are both connected persons of the Company, and their transactions with the Company constituted continuing connected transactions of the Company.

The aim of entering into the supply of goods framework agreement by the Company and Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd., and conducting relevant continuing connected transactions is to meet the Company's normal operation and production needs and to fully utilize the synergies between the Company and the connected persons, which is beneficial for the sound and sustainable development of the Company. The supply price was negotiated and determined with regard to the fair, impartial, open and reasonable principles and with reference to market price. The Group will make reference to contemporaneous transactions with independent third parties for similar transaction subjects and numbers to determine if the price and transaction terms offered by Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. are fair and reasonable and not less favorable than those of the transactions between the Group and independent third parties. For details of the terms and conditions, please refer to the announcement titled "Continuing Connected Transactions under the Supply of Goods Framework Agreements and the Distribution Agreements" and "Increasing the Annual Caps of Continuing Connected Transactions under the Supply of Goods Framework Agreements" disclosed on August 23, 2015 and October 31, 2016 by the Company on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the website of the SSE.

Section VII Significant Events

For the year ended December 31, 2016, the approved annual caps and the amounts of transactions incurred in relation to non-exempt continuing connected transactions under the framework agreements between the Company and Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. and/or their associates for the above service are set out as below:

Nature of the transaction	Annual caps on transactions in 2016	Consolidated amount of transactions in 2016
Expenses of the Company arising from purchasing facilities supplied by Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. and/or its associates under the supply of goods framework agreement	RMB120 million	RMB108.9403 million
Expenses of the Company arising from purchasing raw and auxiliary materials supplied by Fujian Triplex Auto Parts Development Co., Ltd. and/or its associates under the supply of goods framework agreement	RMB85 million	RMB27.3035 million
Total	RMB205 million	RMB136.2438 million

Note: The above annual caps were determined in accordance with purchase and sales plans of the Company and market fair price of the relevant products to be purchased.

- Given that the previous lease contract expired on December 31, 2015, the Company entered into a new lease contract with Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. on October 26, 2015 to continue the lease of properties from Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. for the three years ending December 31, 2018. Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. is indirectly wholly-owned by Mr. Cho Tak Wong, the chairman of the Company, and his spouse, Ms. Chan Fung Ying, who is an associate of Mr. Cho Tak Wong and Mr. Tso Fai, the son of Mr. Cho Tak Wong and a non-executive director of the Company. Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. is a connected person of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and the transactions between Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. and the Company constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company.

The leased properties of the Company from Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. are adjacent to the principal place of business and the production base of the Company in the PRC. Entering into the new lease contract between the Company and Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. and the carrying out of the continuing connected transactions contemplated thereunder are for the establishment of stable ancillary facilities of the Company and in favor of the expansion of the Company's manufacturing scale, the liquidity of the Company's assets, saving more fund for the Company to develop its main businesses and enhancing the core competitiveness of the Company.

Principal terms of the new lease contract entered into between the Company and Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. mainly include: (1) The Company will lease the warehouse on underground floor 1, the staff cafeteria and club and staff dormitory of Districts I and II of Fuyao Industrial Village and the standard manufacturing plant of District I of Yaohua Industrial Village located at Honglu Town, Fuqing, Fujian Province. (2) The annual rent shall be settled in two installments, which consist of the rent for the first half of the year payable on the 15th of January for each calendar year and the rent for the second half of the year payable on the 15th of July for each calendar year, respectively. For details of the terms and conditions, please refer to the announcement titled "Renewal of the Continuing Connected Transaction under the Lease Contract" disclosed on October 26, 2015 by the Company on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the website of the SSE.

Section VII Significant Events

For the year ended December 31, 2016, the approved annual caps and the amounts of transaction incurred in relation to the non-exempt continuing connected transactions contemplated under the above contract between the Company and Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. and/or its associates are set out as below:

Nature of the transaction	Annual caps on transactions in 2016	Consolidated amount of transactions in 2016
Expenses of the Company arising from leasing the properties of Fujian Yaohua Industrial Village Development Co., Ltd. and/or its associates under the lease contract	Approximately RMB21.58 million	RMB20.9256 million
Total	Approximately RMB21.58 million	RMB20.9256 million

Note: The relevant annual caps are determined after taking into account the following factors: (i) the historical transaction amounts; (ii) the prevailing market price of the comparable properties in the place where the leased properties are located; and (iii) the increased leasing area due to the needs of the Company's business expansion.

- On March 19, 2016, the Company and Fujian Wanda Automobile Glass Industrial Co., Ltd. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company) and Fujian Triplex Industrial Development Co., Ltd. (which has changed its name to Fujian Triplex Holdings Group Co., Ltd., same as below) entered into an equity transfer agreement on Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd., pursuant to which the Company and Fujian Wanda Automobile Glass Industrial Co., Ltd. have transferred a total of 100% of equity interests in Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. to Fujian Triplex Industrial Development Co., Ltd. Fujian Triplex Machinery Technology Co., Ltd. is controlled by Mr. Tso Fai, a non-executive director of the Company. After the transfer of equity interests, Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. has become an associate of Mr. Tso Fai.

On March 19, 2016, the Company entered into a supply of goods framework agreement with Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. for the purchase of some molds and gauges, for a term from March 19, 2016 to December 31, 2016. In accordance with the rules under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. is a connected person of the Company, and its transactions with the Company constituted continuing connected transactions of the Company.

The aim of entering into the supply of goods framework agreement by the Company and Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. and conducting relevant continuing connected transactions is to better meet the demand for molds and gauges by the Company's normal production and operation, improve development efficiency of molds and gauges, provide excellent services, and fully utilize the synergies between the Company and the connected persons. The supply price was negotiated and determined with regard to the fair, impartial, open and reasonable principles and with reference to market price. The Group will make reference to contemporaneous transactions with third parties who are not connected persons for similar transaction subjects and numbers to determine if the price and transaction terms offered by Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. are fair and reasonable and not less favorable than those of the transactions between the Group and independent third parties. For details of the terms and conditions, please refer to the announcement titled "Continuing Connected Transaction under the Fuzhou Mold Supply of Goods Framework Agreement and Triplex Auto Services Master Distribution Framework Agreement" disclosed on March 21, 2016 by the Company on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the website of the SSE.

Section VII Significant Events

For the year ended December 31, 2016, the approved annual caps and the amounts of transactions incurred in relation to non-exempt continuing connected transactions under the framework agreements between the Company and Fuzhou Fuyao Mold Technology Co., Ltd. and/or its associates for the above services are set out as below:

Nature of the transaction	Annual caps on transactions in 2016	Consolidated amount of transactions in 2016

VIII. ACTIVE FULFILMENT OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

(I) Poverty Alleviation by the Listed Company

1. Targeted Poverty Alleviation Planning

Under the guidance of Core Cultural System of Fuyao Group and in accordance with the core corporate concept of “self-development while benefiting the world”, Fuyao Group has always been creating values for shareholders and wealth for customers; meanwhile, engaging in public services, caring for the lives of vulnerable groups and people in difficulties and earnestly fulfilling its social responsibility in order to promote the advancement and harmonious development of communities, business and the regional economy. Besides, the Articles of Association of Fuyao Glass Industry Group Co., Ltd. further specifies the authorization system of different amounts for external donation or sponsorship to ensure effective monitoring.

2. Summary of Annual Targeted Poverty Alleviation

As of December 31, 2016, Heren Charitable Foundation established via 300 million shares of Fuyao Glass Industry Group Co. Ltd. held by Mr. Cho Tak Wong has made a donation outlay of RMB281 million, including RMB100 million for Xiamen University to build a library in its Xiang'an Campus; RMB40 million for counties Minqing and Yongtai in Fuzhou City, Fujian which suffered “wind-affected flood” brought by typhoon “Nepartak”; RMB16 million for Fujian disaster-affected areas by typhoon “Meranti” to help people there restore production, return to normal life and rebuild their homes as soon as possible; RMB10 million for Hubei Jingmen People's Government to build temporary post-disaster dwellings for 321 affected households in Shayang County and Qujialing Management Zone, etc..

To answer the call of CPC Central Committee and the State Council, and to implement the spirit of the central work conference of poverty alleviation and to better carry out the targeted poverty alleviation action centered by “millions of enterprises helping millions of villages”, on June 17, 2016, Heren Charitable Foundation and the United Front Work Department, among others, held the opening ceremony of the project “Poverty Alleviation in Several Neighboring Villages” in Ningde City, Fujian.

This public welfare project was initiated by Mr. Cho Tak Wong in cooperation with relevant departments, including the United Front Work Department in 32 poverty villages in old revolutionary base areas of Fujian, Hubei and Guizhou, among which were 12 villages in Guizhou, 10 in Hubei and 10 in Fujian. Heren Charitable Foundation has donated RMB10 million in each province every year since 2016, totaling RMB90 million in 3 consecutive years for support of the local project “Poverty alleviation through development and production”.

Section X Company Governance and Corporate Governance Report

I. COMPANY GOVERNANCE

During the Reporting Period, the Company strictly followed the Company Law, Securities Law, Code of Corporate Governance for Listed Companies in China, and the requirements promulgated by the CSRC, the SSE and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in relation to company governance. The company governance structure was constantly optimized, company operation was regulated, management of insider information was improved, disclosure of company information was strengthened, and the interest of the Company and all the shareholders was solidly protected. There is no material difference between the actual condition of the Company's governance structure and the provisions and requirements prescribed in the prevalent documents by the CSRC. The Company is also in compliance with the code provisions in the Code on Corporate Governance Practices issued by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The general condition of the Company's corporate governance is as follows:

1. Shareholders and General Meeting: The Company convened and held general meetings in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Articles of Association, the Rules of Procedure for General Meetings and the Implementation Rules for the Online Voting in General Meetings. During the Reporting Period, online voting was opened to shareholders to protect their legal rights and interests during the consideration of the Company's 2015 Profit Distribution Plans, the Company's 2015 Annual Report and Summary of the Annual Report, the Resolution in relation to the Public Issuance of Company Bonds to Eligible Investors. The convention and the resolution procedures in each of the general meetings were witnessed by lawyers in person and documents with legal opinions were delivered to ensure the resolutions were lawful and valid. During the Reporting Period, there was no occurrence of any insider trade of information among shareholders and people in possession of insider information, or any incident harming the interest of the shareholders or the Company.
2. Relations between the Controlling Shareholders and the Company: The Company stringently carried out the strategy of "Independence in Five Aspects" with respect to its personnel, assets, finance, organization and business from those of the controlling shareholder, with separate accounting systems and respective responsibilities and risks. The controlling shareholders exercised rights and assumed responsibilities as contributors of the Company in strict compliance with relevant provisions under the Company Law and the Articles of Association of the Company. There was no business competition between the controlling shareholders and the Company, no direct or indirect interference in the decision-making and operation activities of the Company by the controlling shareholders, no non-operation use of capital, and no request of being a guarantee for or by the controlling shareholders. The Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and internal management organizations all operated independently. The Company has established a long-term mechanism to avoid the controlling shareholders from non-operation use of assets and damage of interests of the Company, where the relevant terms of "freeze upon non-operational use" were clearly specified in the Articles of Association.
3. Directors and the Board of Directors: All directors made independent, objective and fair decisions on the resolutions brought to the Board of Directors for consideration with their professional knowledge and ability. They also exercised rights and bore responsibilities in accordance with the laws, and were in strict compliance with the Articles of Association, Rules of Procedure for the Board of Directors and the requirements under relevant laws and regulations, in an honest and diligent manner. The Company adopted cumulative voting in electing the directors. When considering resolutions in relation to connected transactions, the connected shareholders abstained from voting in order to ensure that the connected transactions were fair and reasonable.
4. Supervisors and the Board of Supervisors: All supervisors were in strict compliance with the Articles of Association, Rules of Procedure for the Board of Supervisors and the requirements under relevant laws and regulations. The supervisors earnestly performed their duties for the best interests of all shareholders with the spirit of being responsible to the shareholders, supervised the legality of the Company's financial position, disposal of assets, daily connected transactions, performance of directors and senior management, and protected the legal rights of the Company and the shareholders.
5. Information Disclosure and Transparency: The Company strictly complied with the listing rules of the exchanges where its shares are listed, and fulfilled the responsibilities of disclosure in a truthful, precise, complete and timely manner. Meanwhile, the Company also ensured the confidentiality before the disclosure of information to make sure the disclosure of the Company's information was in an open, fair and just manner so that each shareholder would have an equal chance to obtain such information.

Section X Company Governance and Corporate Governance Report

6. Investor Relationship and Stakeholders: The Company emphasized the maintenance of the investor relationship. The Company appointed the Secretary to the Board of Directors and the representatives of the securities business to be responsible for the information disclosure and management of the investor relationship, and responded to the visits and enquiries of the shareholders and investors in an earnest manner. The Company adequately respected and protected the lawful rights and interests of the creditors, clients, suppliers and other stakeholders, established coordination and balance of interests among different parties such as shareholders, employees and the society, actively engaged in welfare activities, emphasized the Company's social responsibilities and enhanced the stable and sustainable development of the Company.
7. Registration and Management of People in Possession of Inside Information: During the Reporting Period, the Company implemented the System for the Registration and Management of People in Possession of Inside Information in strict compliance with the requirements of the regulators. According to the regulations of such system, the Company performed registration to record people associated with the inside information during the disclosure process of the Company's periodic reports. During the Reporting Period, no people possessing inside information traded the Company's shares in violation of the laws and regulations.

Corporate governance is a long-term commitment. The Company will enhance its internal control system, constantly raise the level of standardized operations and consistently optimize its corporate governance structure in accordance with the Company Law, Securities Law, Code of Corporate Governance for Listed Companies in China, and the requirements promulgated by the CSRC, the SSE and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in relation to company governance.

As of the end of the Reporting Period, the legal entity governance structure was sound and in compliance with the requirements under the Company Law and relevant regulations of CSRC. The Company has adopted the principles and code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code. During the Reporting Period, the Company has complied with the code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code.

The general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors all operated effectively in strict compliance with the Articles of Association and their respective rules of procedure. For the information required for disclosure in accordance with the Corporate Governance Report set out in the Appendix 14 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, please refer to the relevant parts in this annual report and "Section V Report of the Board of Directors" and "Section IX The Directors, Supervisors, Senior Management and Employees".

II. COMPLIANCE WITH THE MODEL CODE FOR SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS BY DIRECTORS OF LISTED ISSUERS

The Company has adopted the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers ("Model Code") of the Hong Kong Listing Rules as the model code on trading securities of the Company for all directors, supervisors and relevant employees (as defined in the Corporate Governance Code). According to the specific enquiries made to the directors and supervisors of the Company, all directors and supervisors have confirmed that they had strictly complied with the standards stipulated under the Model Code during the Reporting Period.

IV. THE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

(I) Shareholders to Convene an Extraordinary General Meeting

According to the Articles of Association, the shareholders independently or jointly holding more than 10% shares of the Company may request the Board of Directors to hold an extraordinary general meetings. Such request shall be delivered in writing. The Board of Directors shall revert in writing whether to approve the holding of an extraordinary general meeting according to the applicable laws, regulations and the Articles of Association within 10 days after the request is received. In case that the Board of Directors approves the holding of an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a corresponding notice of convening the general meeting within 5 days after the resolution is made, and changes to the original proposal should be agreed by the relevant shareholders. In case the Board of Directors refuses the request of holding of an extraordinary general meeting, or makes no feedback within 10 days after receiving the proposal, the shareholders independently or jointly holding more than 10% shares of the Company may request the Board of Supervisors to hold an extraordinary general meeting in writing. In the case that the Board of Supervisors approves the holding of an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice convening the general meeting within 5 days after the request is received, and changes to the original proposal shall be agreed by the relevant shareholders. In the case that the Board of Supervisors fails to issue the notice of extraordinary general meeting in the prescribed period, the Board of Supervisors shall be deemed as refusing to convene and preside over such meeting. Shareholders independently or jointly holding more than 10% shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over such meeting on their own initiative. In the case that the proposing shareholders convene and preside over such meeting on their own initiative due to the failure of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors to convene such meeting upon request, the reasonable expenses incurred from convening and holding of such meeting shall be borne by the Company and deducted from the remuneration that shall be paid to the derelict directors by the Company.

(II) Shareholders to Convene a Meeting for a Certain Class of Shareholders

According to the Articles of Association, in the case that shareholders request the convening of a meeting for a certain class of shareholders, the following procedures shall be followed: 1. Two or more shareholders jointly holding more than 10% (including 10%) of the voting shares at a proposed meeting may sign one or several copies of written request with the same format and particulars to be submitted to the Board of Directors for convening a class meeting, and state the agenda of the meeting. The Board of Directors shall, after receipt of such written request, convene the class meeting as soon as possible. The number of shares held as referred to above shall be calculated on the basis of the date of making the written request by the shareholders. 2. In the event that the Board of Directors does not issue a notice to convene the meeting within 30 days of receiving such written request, the shareholders who have made such request may convene such meeting on their own initiative within four months after the Board of Directors' receipt of the request. The procedures for convening the meeting shall be as similar as possible to the Board of Directors' procedures for convening a general meeting.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF FUYAO GLASS INDUSTRY GROUP CO., LTD.

(incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

Opinion

What We Have Audited

The consolidated financial statements of Fuyao Glass Industry Group Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 111 to 187, which comprise:

- the consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2016;
- the consolidated income statement for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Our Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2016, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("IESBA Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code.

Section XII Financial Report

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matter identified in our audit is as follows:

Key Audit Matter

Revenue Recognition

The Group's revenue mainly comprises of sales of automotive glasses to original equipment manufacturers ("OEM") customers and aftermarket repairing glass ("ARG") customers in China and overseas markets. For the year ended 31 December 2016, revenue from sales to China OEM customers amounted to RMB10,252 million, which represented approximately 62% of total revenue.

Refer to note 2.28(a) to the consolidated financial statements. Revenue will be recognised when the products are shipped to the agreed delivery locations in accordance with the contracts, and customers confirm the acceptance. After the acceptance of the products, the customers have the right to sell and use the products on its own interests and bear the risk of price fluctuation or damage to the products. Among the Group's total revenue, revenue from sales to China OEM customers is recognised when the China OEM customers confirmed the acceptance of the products in accordance with the sales contract terms. Revenue from sales to other customers, including overseas OEM customers and ARG customers, is recognised when products have been shipped to the agreed delivery locations in accordance with the contracts and the customers confirm the acceptance.

We focused on the proper cut-off of sales to China OEM customers due to the fact that the documents of confirming the acceptance of the products were provided by numerous OEM customers based in different locations. There is a risk of differences between the timing of acceptance of the products by China OEM customers and that when revenue was recorded. Accordingly, there could be potential misstatements that these revenue transactions are not recognised in the proper reporting periods.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

We understood, evaluated and validated management's key controls in respect of the Group's sales transactions from customer order's approval to sales recording. In addition, we tested the general information technology control environment and the related automated controls of the Group's revenue related system.

We understood and evaluated the revenue recognition policy of the Group by reviewing the sales contracts entered into with the customers and discussing with management.

We conducted testing of revenue related to sales to China OEM customers, using sampling techniques, by examining the relevant supporting documents including risks and rewards terms of the sales contracts and customers' acceptance documents. In addition, we confirmed the balance of trade receivables and also the total sales amount with selected customers on a targeted basis, considering the nature and characteristics of those customers.

Furthermore, we also tested sales transactions recorded before and after the balance sheet date, using sampling techniques, by tracing to the relevant customers' acceptance documents to assess whether revenue was recognised in the correct reporting periods.

Based on our work performed, we did not note any significant exceptions related to cut-off of revenue recognition which would impact the consolidated financial statements.

Section XII Financial Report

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve: collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Section XII Financial Report

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Wong Kam Chin.

The address of the Company's registered office is Fuyao Industrial Zone, Rongqiao Economic & Technological Development Zone, Fuqing City, Fujian Province, the PRC. The Company and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") are principally engaged in the manufacturing and sale of automobile glass.

These financial statements are presented in RMB, unless otherwise stated.

2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of Preparation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap. 622. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of derivative financial instruments, which are designated as financial assets or liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4 below.

2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

2.1 Basis of Preparation (Continued)

(a) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The following amendments to standards have been adopted by the Group for the first time for the financial year beginning on or after 1 January 2016:

- Amendments from annual improvements to IFRSs – 2012–2014 Cycle, on IFRS 5, 'Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations', IFRS 7, 'Financial instruments: Disclosures', IAS 19, 'Employee benefits', IAS 34, 'Interim financial reporting'
- Amendments to IAS 16 and IAS 38, 'Clarification of acceptable methods of depreciation and amortisation'
- Amendments to IAS 1, 'Disclosure initiative'
- Amendments to IAS 27, 'Equity method in separate financial statements'
- IFRS 14, 'Regulatory Deferral Accounts'
- Amendments to IFRS 11, 'Accounting for acquisitions of interests in joint operations'
- Amendments to IAS 16 and IAS 41, 'Agriculture bearer plants'
- Amendments to IFRS 10, IFRS 12 and IAS 28, 'Investment entities: applying the consolidation exceptions'

Amendments and interpretations as mentioned above have no material effect on the Group's operating results, financial position or comprehensive income.

(b) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

The following new standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards which have been issued but are not effective for annual periods beginning after 1 January 2016 and have not been early adopted by the Group:

		Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
Amendments to IAS 12	Income taxes	1 January 2017
Amendment to IAS 7	Statement of cash flows	1 January 2017
IFRS 15	Revenue from contracts with customers	1 January 2018
IFRS 9	Financial instruments	1 January 2018
IFRS 16	Leases	1 January 2019 or when apply IFRS 15
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture	1 January 2019

The Group is in the process of making an assessment on the impact of these new/revised standards, amendments and interpretation and does not anticipate that the adoption when they become effective will result in any material impact on the Group's result of operations and financial position.

2.2 Subsidiaries

2.2.1 Consolidation

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

(a) Business combinations

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation are measured at either fair value or the present ownership interests' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by IFRS.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date; any gains or losses arising from such re-measurement are recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the Group is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration that is deemed to be an asset or liability is recognised in accordance with IAS 39 either in profit or loss or as a change to other comprehensive income. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured, and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognised and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in the income statement.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. When necessary, amounts reported by subsidiaries have been adjusted to conform with the Group's accounting policies.

(b) Changes in ownership interests in subsidiaries without change of control

Transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions – that is, as transactions with the owners of the subsidiary in their capacity as owners. The difference between fair value of any consideration paid and the relevant share acquired of the carrying value of net assets of the subsidiary is recorded in equity. Gains or losses on disposals to non-controlling interests are also recorded in equity.

(c) Disposal of subsidiaries

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the date when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

2.2.2 Separate financial statement

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost also includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving dividends from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.3 Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20% and 49% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recognised at cost, and the carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognise the investor's share of the profit or loss of the investee after the date of acquisition. The Group's investments in associates include goodwill identified on acquisition. Upon the acquisition of the ownership interest in an associate, any difference between the cost of the associate and the Group's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted for as goodwill.

If the ownership interest in an associate is reduced but significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to income statement where appropriate.

The Group's share of post-acquisition profit or loss is recognised in the income statement, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income with a corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the investment. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

Section XII Financial Report

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and recognises the amount adjacent to 'share of profit of investments accounted for using equity method' in the income statement.

Profits and losses resulting from upstream and downstream transactions between the Group and its associate are recognised in the Group's financial statements only to the extent of unrelated investor's interests in the associates. Unrealised losses are eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Gain or losses on dilution of equity interest in associates are recognised in the income statement.

2.4 Joint Arrangements

The Group has applied IFRS 11 to all joint arrangements. Under IFRS 11, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures depending on the contractual rights and obligations each investor has. The Group has assessed the nature of its joint arrangements and determined them to be joint ventures. Joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method in the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Under the equity method of accounting, investments in joint ventures are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint ventures (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the joint ventures), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint ventures.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the joint ventures. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of the joint ventures have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investments in the joint venture are impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the joint ventures and their carrying value and recognises the amount adjacent to share of results of joint ventures, in the consolidated income statements.

Investments in joint ventures are accounted for at cost less impairment in the Company's separate financial statements.

2.5 Segment Reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors that make strategic decisions.

2.6 Foreign Currency Translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The financial statements are presented in RMB, which is the Company's functional and the Group's presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the consolidated income statements.

Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated income statements within "other gains/(losses) – net".

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyper-inflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each income statement are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate. Currency translation differences arising are recognised in other comprehensive income.

2.7 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at historical cost less depreciation and provision for impairment loss, if any. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Freehold land is not depreciated. Depreciation on other assets is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Buildings	10 to 20 years
Machinery and equipment	10 to 12 years
Electronic and office equipment	5 years
Tools, dies, vehicles and others	3 to 5 years

Construction in progress represents property, plant and equipment under construction or pending installation and is stated at cost less provision for impairment loss, if any. Cost includes the costs of construction and acquisition. When the assets concerned are available for use, the costs are transferred to property, plant and equipment and depreciated in accordance with the policy as stated above.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (Note 2.10).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within "other gains/(losses) – net" in the consolidated income statements.

2.8 Leasehold Land and Land Use Rights

Leasehold land and land use rights represent upfront payments made for the land use rights. It is stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses, if any (Note 2.10). Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of leasehold land and land use rights over the remaining period of the lease.

2.9 Intangible Assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisition of subsidiaries and represents the excess of the consideration transferred over the fair value of the Group's share of the net identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the acquiree and the fair value of the non-controlling interest in the acquiree.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

Goodwill impairment reviews are undertaken annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment. The carrying value of goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs to sell. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently reversed.

(b) Patents

Acquired patents are shown at historical cost. Patents have a finite life and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment, if any. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of patents over their estimated useful lives.

(c) Licenses

Acquired licenses are shown at historical cost. Licenses have a finite life and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment, if any. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of licenses over their estimated useful lives.

(d) Computer software

Acquired computer software license are capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire the specific software. Computer software is carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment, if any. These costs are amortised over their estimated useful lives.

(e) Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets acquired are initially recognised at cost and amortised on a straight-line method over their estimated useful lives.

2.10 Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life – for example, goodwill or intangible assets not ready to use – are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.11 Non-Current Assets (or Disposal Groups) Held-for-Sale

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) are classified as held-for-sale when their carrying amount is to be recovered principally through a sale transaction and a sale is considered highly probable. The non-current assets (except for certain assets as explained below), (or disposal groups), are stated at the lower of carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, deferred tax assets, inventories, and financial assets, even if held-for-sale, would continue to be measured in accordance with the policies set out elsewhere in Note 2.

2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

2.12 Financial Assets

2.12.1 Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following categories: at fair value through profit and loss and loans and receivables. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

(a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets held for trading. A financial asset is classified in this category if acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short term. Derivatives are also categorised as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Assets in this category are classified as current assets if expected to be settled within 12 months, otherwise, they are classified as non-current.

(b) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the end of the reporting period. These are classified as non-current assets. The Group's loans and receivables comprise "trade and other receivables", "restricted cash" and "cash and cash equivalents", in the consolidated balance sheets (Notes 13 and 14).

2.12.2 Recognition and measurement

Regular purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value, and transaction costs are expensed in the consolidated income statements. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of the 'financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the consolidated income statements within 'other gains/(losses) – net' in the period in which they arise.

2.13 Offsetting Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

2.14 Impairment of Financial Assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a "loss event") and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Evidence of impairment may include indications that the debtors or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, and where observable data indicate that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

For loans and receivables category, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in the consolidated income statements. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated income statements.

2.15 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the weighted average method. The cost of finished goods and work in progress comprises raw materials, direct labor, other direct costs and related production overheads (based on normal operating capacity). It excludes borrowing costs. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses.

2.16 Trade and Other Receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for products sold or services provided in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

2.17 Cash and Cash Equivalents

In the consolidated cash flows statements, cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

2.18 Restricted Cash

Restricted cash represents guaranteed deposits pledged to the bank for issuance of trade facilities, such as security deposits for borrowing and guaranteed deposits for issuance of letter of credit. Such restricted cash will be released when the Group repays the related trade facilities or bank loans.

2.19 Share Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.20 Trade and Other Payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade payables and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.21 Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the consolidated income statements over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a pre-payment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

2.22 Borrowings Cost

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

2.23 Derivative Financial Instruments

Derivative financial instruments refer to the forward foreign exchange contracts. Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at their fair value.

The Group uses these currency forward contracts to mitigate exposure to changes in foreign exchange rate. These forward foreign exchange contracts are held for “economic hedge”, which do not qualify for hedge accounting.

Changes in the fair value of all derivative instruments are recognised immediately in the consolidated income statements within “other gains/(losses) – net”.

2.24 Current and Deferred Income Tax

The income tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognised in the consolidated income statements, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the income tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the areas where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Inside basis differences

Deferred income tax is recognised on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Outside basis differences

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, except for deferred income tax liability where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Generally the Group is unable to control the reversal of the temporary difference for joint ventures and associates. Only when there is an agreement in place that gives the Group the ability to control the reversal of the temporary difference in the foreseeable future, deferred tax liability in relation to taxable temporary differences arising from the joint ventures and associates' undistributed profits is not recognised.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised on deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates only to the extent that it is probable the temporary difference will reverse in the future and there is sufficient taxable profit available against which the temporary difference can be utilised.

(c) Offsetting

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.25 Employee Benefits

(a) Pension obligations

The full-time employees of the Group in the PRC are covered by various government-sponsored defined contribution pension plans under which the employees are entitled to a monthly pension based on certain formulas. The relevant government agencies are responsible for the pension liability to these retired employees. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these pension plans. Under these plans, the Group has no obligation for post-retirement benefits beyond the contributions made. Contributions to these plans are expensed as incurred and contributions paid to the defined-contribution pension plans for a staff are not available to reduce the Group's future obligations to such defined-contribution pension plans even if the staff leave the Group. The non-PRC employees are covered by other defined contribution pension plans sponsored by local government.

The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due.

(b) Housing funds, medical insurances and other social insurances

The PRC employees of the Group are entitled to participate in various government-supervised housing funds, medical insurance and other employee social insurance plan. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these funds based on certain percentages of the salaries of the employees, subject to certain ceiling. The Group's liability in respect of these funds is limited to the contributions payable in each period, and recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due.

2.26 Provision and Contingent Liabilities

Provisions are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is not recognised but is disclosed in the Group's consolidated financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, it will then be recognised as a provision.

2.27 Operating Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the consolidated income statements on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.28 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, and represents amounts receivable for goods supplied, stated net of discounts returns and value-added taxes. The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured; when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the Group; and when specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities, as described below. The Group bases its estimates of return on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

(a) Sales of products

Revenue will be recognised when the products are shipped to the agreed delivery locations in accordance with the contracts, and customers confirm the acceptance. After the acceptance of the products, the customers have the right to sell and use the products on its own interests and bear the risk of price fluctuation or damage to the products. Among the Group's total revenue, revenue from sales to China OEM customers is recognised when the China OEM customers confirmed the acceptance of the products in accordance with the sales contract terms. Revenue from sales to other customers, including overseas OEM customers and ARG customers, is recognised when products have been shipped to the agreed delivery locations in accordance with the contracts and the customers confirm the acceptance.

(b) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.

(c) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

(d) Rental income from operating lease

Rental income from operating lease is recognised in the consolidated income statements on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

2.29 Government Grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all the attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the consolidated income statements over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to assets which are credited to the consolidated income statements on a straight-line basis over the expected useful lives of the related asset are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income, among which those are credited to the consolidated income statements in the upcoming 12 months are classified as current liabilities.

For those cash injection received from government with clear instruction as capital injection from government authorities, they have been recorded as "other reserves" during the year.

2.30 Dividend Distribution

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Group's consolidated financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders, where appropriate.

2.31 Research and Development

Research expenditure is recognised as an expense as incurred. Costs incurred on development projects relating to design and testing of new or improved products are recognised as intangible assets when it is probable that the project will be a success, considering its commercial and technological feasibility, and costs can be measured reliably. Other development expenditures are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognised as an expense are not recognised as an asset in a subsequent period.

3 Financial Risk Management

3.1 Financial Risk Factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, cash flow and fair value interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management policy focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The primary economic environment in which the Group operates in the PRC and their functional currency is RMB. However, the Group's certain subsidiaries operate in the United States and Russia and their functional currencies are the United States Dollar ("USD") and Russian Ruble ("RBL") respectively. Also, the Group exports the products to overseas and the sales are carried out in USD and Euro ("EUR"). Moreover, certain cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and trade and other payables are denominated in foreign currencies which expose the Group to foreign currency risk, primarily with respect to USD, EUR and RBL. The Group currently uses forward foreign exchange contracts to partially reduce the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates.

As at 31 December 2016 and 2015, if RMB had strengthened/weakened by 10% against the foreign currencies while all other variables had been held constant, the Group's net profit for the year would have changed as follows, mainly as a result of exchange gains/losses on translation of various financial assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies:

	2016 RMB'000	2015 RMB'000
Net profit increase/(decrease)
USD
– Strengthened 10%	(494,881)	(461,696)
– Weakened 10%	494,881	461,696
EUR
– Strengthened 10%	(16,892)	(3,067)
– Weakened 10%	16,892	3,067
RBL
– Strengthened 10%	(3,377)	1,977
– Weakened 10%	3,377	(1,977)

(a) Market risk (Continued)

(ii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's borrowings.

Borrowings obtained at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest-rate risk. Borrowings obtained at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest-rate risk. The Group does not hedge its cash flow and fair value interest rate risk. The interest rates and terms of repayments of borrowings are disclosed in Note 19.

As at 31 December 2016 and 2015, if interest rates on bank borrowings had risen/fallen by 50 basis points with all other variables held constant, the Group's net profit for the year would have changed mainly as a result of higher/lower interest expenses on floating rate borrowings. Details of changes are as follows:

	2016	2015
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Net profit increase/(decrease)
– Risen 50 basis points	(3,111)	(3,634)
– Fallen 50 basis points	3,111	3,634

(b) Credit risk

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade and other receivables included in the financial statements represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to its financial assets. The objective of the Group's measures to manage credit risk is to control potential exposure to recoverability problem.

Cash and cash equivalents, including restricted cash, were deposited in the major financial institutions in the PRC, which the directors believe are of high credit quality.

The Group established policies in place to ensure that sales of products are made to customers with an appropriate credit history and the Group assesses the credit worthiness and financial strength of its customers as well as considering prior dealing history with the customers and volume of sales. See Note 13 for ageing analysis. Management make periodic assessment on the recoverability of trade and other receivables based on historical payment records, the length of the overdue period, the financial strength of the debtors and whether there are any trade disputes with the debtors.

The Group uses credit insurance to control the default risk of trade receivables.

(c) Liquidity risk

Group finance monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Group does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities. The Group expected to fund the future cash flow needs through internally generated cash flows from operations, borrowings from financial institutions and issuing debt instruments, as necessary.

The table below analyses the Group's financial liabilities that will be settled on a net basis into relevant maturity grouping based on the remaining period at the balance sheet to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

As at 31 December 2016, the Group has outstanding net-settled foreign currency forward contracts to buy USD4,812,000 for EUR4,255,000 (As at 31 December 2015: buy RMB25,252,800 for USD4,000,000 and buy USD10,612,000 for EUR9,634,000).

3.2 Capital Risk Management

The Group objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to enhance shareholders' value in the long term.

The Group monitors capital (including share capital and capital reserves) by regularly reviewing the capital structure. As a part of this review, the directors of the Company consider the cost of capital and the risks associated with the issued share capital. The Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

Consistent with industry, the Group monitors capital on basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debts divided by total capital. Net debts are calculated as total borrowings (including current and non-current borrowings as shown in the consolidated balance sheets) less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as "equity" as shown in the financial statements plus net debts.

3.3 Fair Value Estimation

(a) The table below analyses the Group's financial instruments carried at fair value as at 31 December 2016 by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1);
- Inputs other than quoted prices of Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2); and
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

(c) Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost

The fair value of the following financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amount:

- Short-term borrowings;
- Trade and other receivables (excluding prepayments to suppliers and prepaid current income tax or value-added tax recoverable);
- Cash and cash equivalents (including restricted cash);
- Trade and other payables (excluding advance from customers and statutory liabilities).

4 Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements

Estimates are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Estimated Useful Lives and Residual Values of Property, Plant and Equipment

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment, mainly based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of property, plant and equipment with similar nature and functions. Management will revise the depreciation charges where useful lives are different to that of previously estimated, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives and actual residual values may differ from estimated residual values. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable lives and residual values and therefore depreciation expense in future periods.

(b) Impairment of Goodwill

The Group tests annually whether goodwill has suffered any impairment, in accordance with the accounting policy as stated in Note 2.10. The recoverable amounts of cash-generating units have been determined based on value-in-use calculations. These calculations require the use of estimates (Note 8).

In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the recoverable amount of the CGU will not be lower than the carrying amount of a reasonably possible change in a key assumption on which management has based its determination of the CGU's recoverable amount occurs.

(c) Net Realisable Value of Inventories

Net realisable value of inventory is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and selling expense. These estimates are based on the current market condition and the historical experience of manufacturing and selling products of similar nature. It could change significantly as a result of technical innovations, and competitor actions in response to severe industry cycle. Management reassesses these estimates at each balance sheet date.

4 Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements (Continued)

(d) Current and Deferred Income Tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in numerous jurisdictions. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes in each of these jurisdictions. There are transactions and calculations during the ordinary course of business for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred income tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. When the expectation is different from the original estimate, such differences will impact the recognition of deferred income tax assets and taxation charges in the period in which such estimate is changed.

(e) Impairment of Receivables

The Group's management determines the provision for impairment of trade and other receivables based on an assessment of the recoverability of the receivables. This assessment is based on the credit history of its customers and other debtors and the current market condition, and requires the use of judgements and estimates. Management reassesses the provisions at each balance sheet date.

(f) Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

Non-financial assets including property, plant and equipment, land use rights and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts have been determined based on value-in-use calculations or fair value less costs to sell. These calculations require the use of judgments and estimates.

Management judgment is required in the area of asset impairment particularly in assessing: (i) whether an event has occurred that may indicate that the related asset values may not be recoverable; (ii) whether the carrying value of asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less costs to sell and net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the Continued use of the asset in the business; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including whether these cash flow projections are discounted using an appropriate rate. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment, including the discount rates or the growth rate assumptions in the cash flow projections, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial condition and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the projected performance and the resulting future cash flow projections, it may be necessary to take an impairment charge to the consolidated income statements.

5 Segment Information

The Group operates as a single operating segment. The single operating segment is reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segment, has been identified as the executive directors that make strategic decisions.

None of the revenue derived from any single external customer amounted for more than 10% of the Group's revenue during the year.

(a) Impairment Tests for Goodwill

The goodwill is monitored by the management at cash-generating units ("CGU") level. The following is a summary of goodwill allocation for each CGU:

	Year ended 31 December
	2016 RMB'000	2015 RMB'000
Fujian Wanda Automobile Glass Industry Co., Ltd. (Note (i))	62,744	62,744
Hainan Wenchang Fuyao Silica Sand Co., Ltd. (Note (ii))	11,934	11,934
	74,678	74,678

For the purpose of impairment test, goodwill has been allocated to the smallest individual of CGU identified. The recoverable amount of a CGU is determined based on value-in-use calculations. The calculation uses cash flow projections based on the financial budget made by managements, with reference to the prevailing market condition, covering a period of five years and assuming the cash flow beyond the five years period would be stable. The key assumptions used for value-in-use are as follows:

(i) Fujian Wanda Automobile Glass Industry Co., Ltd.

	2016	2015
Gross profit margin	34%	34%
Pre-tax discount rate	11%	11%

	Year ended 31 December
	2016	2015
Gross profit margin	48%	55%
Pre-tax discount rate	9%	9%

As at 31 December 2016 and 2015, management performed the value-to-use calculation and no impairment is identified.

15 Assets and Liabilities of Disposal Group Classified as Held-for-Sale

On 1 August 2013, the Group signed the equity transfer agreement with Jinyuan Glass Manufacturing Co., Ltd. ("Jinyuan Glass"), an independent third party, to dispose 75% interests in Fuyao Group Shuangliao Co., Ltd. (福耀集團雙遼有限公司, "Fuyao Shuangliao"), a subsidiary of the Group. On 9 September 2014, the Group signed supplementary terms with Jinyuan Glass to dispose the remaining 25% shares of Fuyao Shuangliao which were held by Fuyao (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd.. Accordingly the assets and liabilities of Fuyao Shuangliao are classified as assets and liabilities held-for-sale in the balance sheet as at 31 December 2015.

On 28 July 2016, the Group entered into a new contract with Jinyuan Glass and Huasheng Gas Group Co., Ltd. ("Huasheng Gas"), another independent third party, pursuant to which Fuyao Shuangliao will reduce its registered capital from USD50,028,000 to USD30,028,000, then the Group will dispose 50% interests in Fuyao Shuangliao to Jinyuan Glass and 25% interests in Fuyao Shuangliao to Huasheng Gas at consideration of RMB130,000,000 and RMB65,000,000, respectively. In 2016, the disposal has been completed and all considerations have been settled in cash. The difference between the consideration and the Group's respective share of the net assets of Fuyao Shuangliao is recognised in other gains.

Upon completion of the disposal, the Group owns 25% interests in Fuyao Shuangliao (renamed as "Jinken Glass Industry Shuangliao Co., Ltd.") and accordingly was classified as investment in associate and accounted for using the equity method.

– RMB	2.90%	4.25%

Interest rates of bank borrowings are reset periodically according to the benchmark rates announced by the People's Bank of China and are denominated in RMB.

(i) The fair values of current borrowings approximate their carrying amounts as the impact of discounting is not significant. The carrying amount and fair value of non-current borrowings as at each balance sheet date are set out as follows:

	As at 31 December
	2016 RMB'000	2015 RMB'000
Carrying amount	1,573,531	848,000
Fair value	1,533,099	844,000

The fair values of non-current borrowings are estimated based on discounted cash flow using the prevailing market rates of interest available to the Group for financial instruments with substantially the same terms and characteristics at the respective balance sheet dates and are within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.
